Amendment to Protect Against Unequal Treatment

This proposal would protect against unequal treatment based on ethnicity, national origin, age, disability, and sex, including sexual orientation, gender identity and pregnancy. It also protects against unequal treatment based on reproductive healthcare and autonomy.

A "Yes" vote puts these protections in the New York State Constitution.

A "No" vote leaves these protections out of the State Constitution.

Amendment to Protect Against Unequal Treatment

This proposal would protect against unequal treatment based on ethnicity, national origin, age, disability, and sex, including sexual orientation, gender identity and pregnancy. It also protects against unequal treatment based on reproductive healthcare and autonomy.

A "Yes" vote puts these protections in the New York State Constitution.

A "No" vote leaves these protections out of the State Constitution.

Instructions

- Mark the oval to the left of the name of your choice.
- To vote for a candidate whose name is not printed on the ballot, print the name clearly in the box labeled 'write-in', staying within the box.
- Any mark or writing outside the spaces provided for voting may void the entire ballot.
- You have a right to a replacement ballot. If you make a mistake or want to change your vote, call the board of elections at 518-565-4740 for instructions on how to obtain a new ballot.
- The number of choices is listed for each contest. Do not mark the ballot for more candidates than allowed. If you do, your vote in that contest will not count.

- To be counted, absentee ballots returned by mail must be postmarked by the day of the election and be received by the County Board of Elections no later than 7 days after election day.
- After marking the ballot, fold such ballot and enclose it in the envelope bearing the voter's statement, and seal the envelope. Fill in properly the blanks in the statement and sign your name.
- Enclose the sealed envelope bearing the statement in the envelope addressed to the County Board of Elections and mail promptly.

Amendment to Protect Against Unequal Treatment

This proposal would protect against unequal treatment based on ethnicity, national origin, age, disability, and sex, including sexual orientation, gender identity and pregnancy. It also protects against unequal treatment based on reproductive healthcare and autonomy.

A "Yes" vote puts these protections in the New York State Constitution.

A "No" vote leaves these protections out of the State Constitution.

Proposal two, town proposition one	On June 17, 2024, the Town of Beekmantown Town Board adopted a resolution to reduce the number of Town Justices from two, to one. Amendment to Protect Against Unequal Treatment

This proposal would protect against unequal treatment based on ethnicity, national origin, age, disability, and sex, including sexual orientation, gender identity and pregnancy. It also protects against unequal treatment based on reproductive healthcare and autonomy.

A "Yes" vote puts these protections in the New York State Constitution.

A "No" vote leaves these protections out of the State Constitution.

Amendment to Protect Against Unequal Treatment

This proposal would protect against unequal treatment based on ethnicity, national origin, age, disability, and sex, including sexual orientation, gender identity and pregnancy. It also protects against unequal treatment based on reproductive healthcare and autonomy.

A "Yes" vote puts these protections in the New York State Constitution.

A "No" vote leaves these protections out of the State Constitution.

Amendment to Protect Against Unequal Treatment

This proposal would protect against unequal treatment based on ethnicity, national origin, age, disability, and sex, including sexual orientation, gender identity and pregnancy. It also protects against unequal treatment based on reproductive healthcare and autonomy.

A "Yes" vote puts these protections in the New York State Constitution.

A "No" vote leaves these protections out of the State Constitution.

Amendment to Protect Against Unequal Treatment

This proposal would protect against unequal treatment based on ethnicity, national origin, age, disability, and sex, including sexual orientation, gender identity and pregnancy. It also protects against unequal treatment based on reproductive healthcare and autonomy.

A "Yes" vote puts these protections in the New York State Constitution.

A "No" vote leaves these protections out of the State Constitution.

Instructions

- Mark the oval to the left of the name of your choice.
- To vote for a candidate whose name is not printed on the ballot, print the name clearly in the box labeled 'write-in', staying within the box.
- Any mark or writing outside the spaces provided for voting may void the entire ballot.
- You have a right to a replacement ballot. If you make a mistake or want to change your vote, call the board of elections at 518-565-4740 for instructions on how to obtain a new ballot.
- The number of choices is listed for each contest. Do not mark the ballot for more candidates than allowed. If you do, your vote in that contest will not count.

- To be counted, absentee ballots returned by mail must be postmarked by the day of the election and be received by the County Board of Elections no later than 7 days after election day.
- After marking the ballot, fold such ballot and enclose it in the envelope bearing the voter's statement, and seal the envelope. Fill in properly the blanks in the statement and sign your name.
- Enclose the sealed envelope bearing the statement in the envelope addressed to the County Board of Elections and mail promptly.

Remember to vote both sides

Instructions for Voting on Questions and Proposals
